

View of Te Pahu farms

View of Te Miro Farms

Lake Placid – fenced and planted 2018

Te Miro hill country

Te Pahu drystock and dairy over Kaniwhaniwha stream

Te Pahu hill country down to rolling

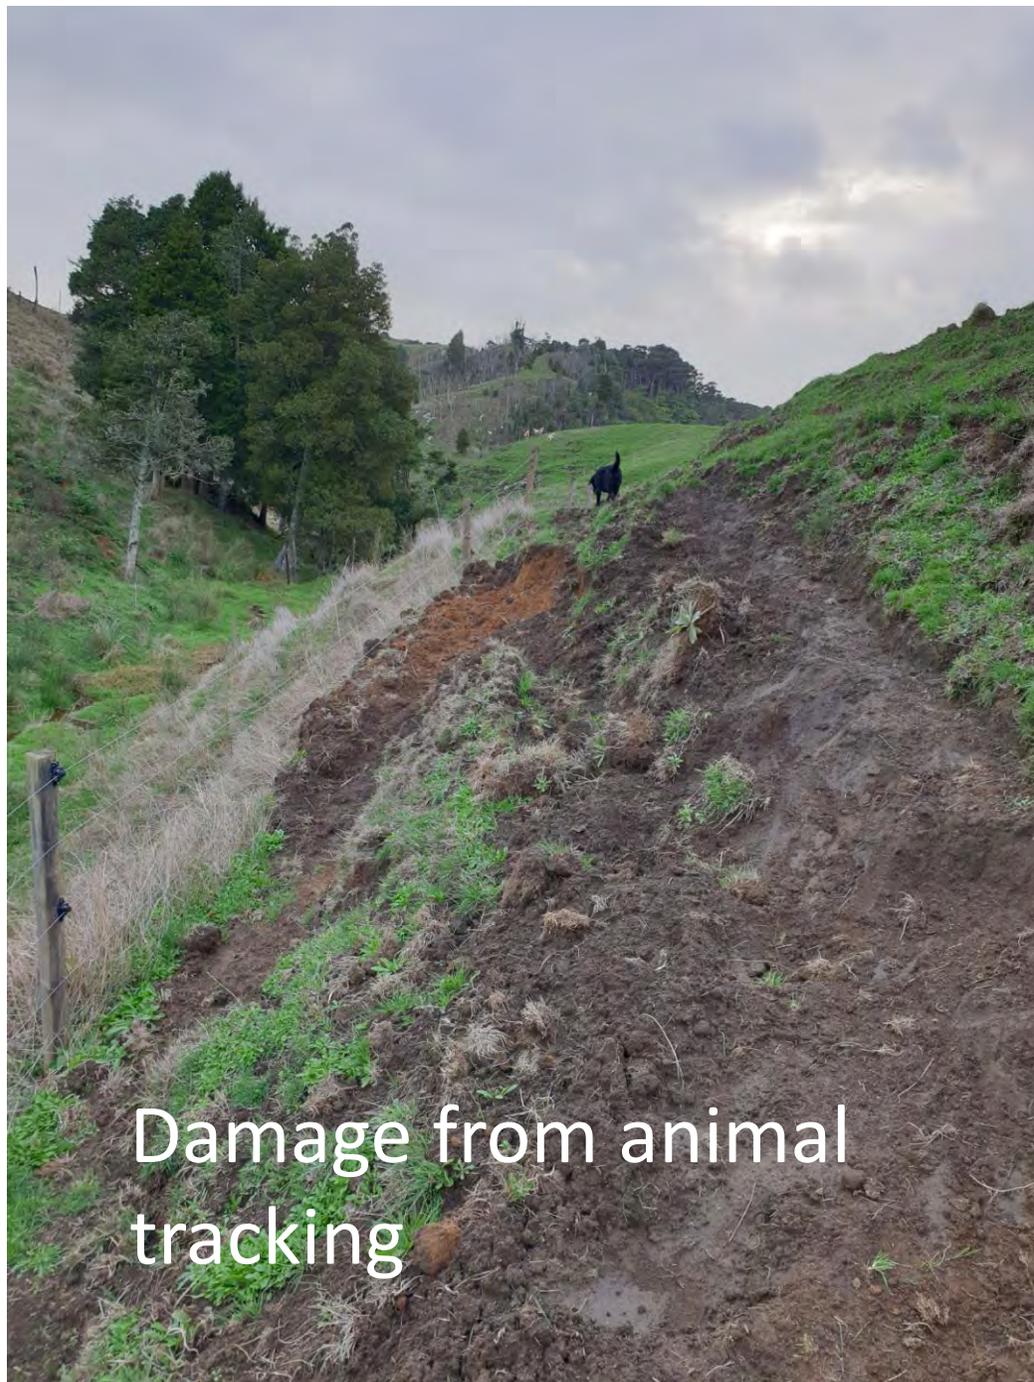

PC1 classed waterway showing little disturbance from cattle

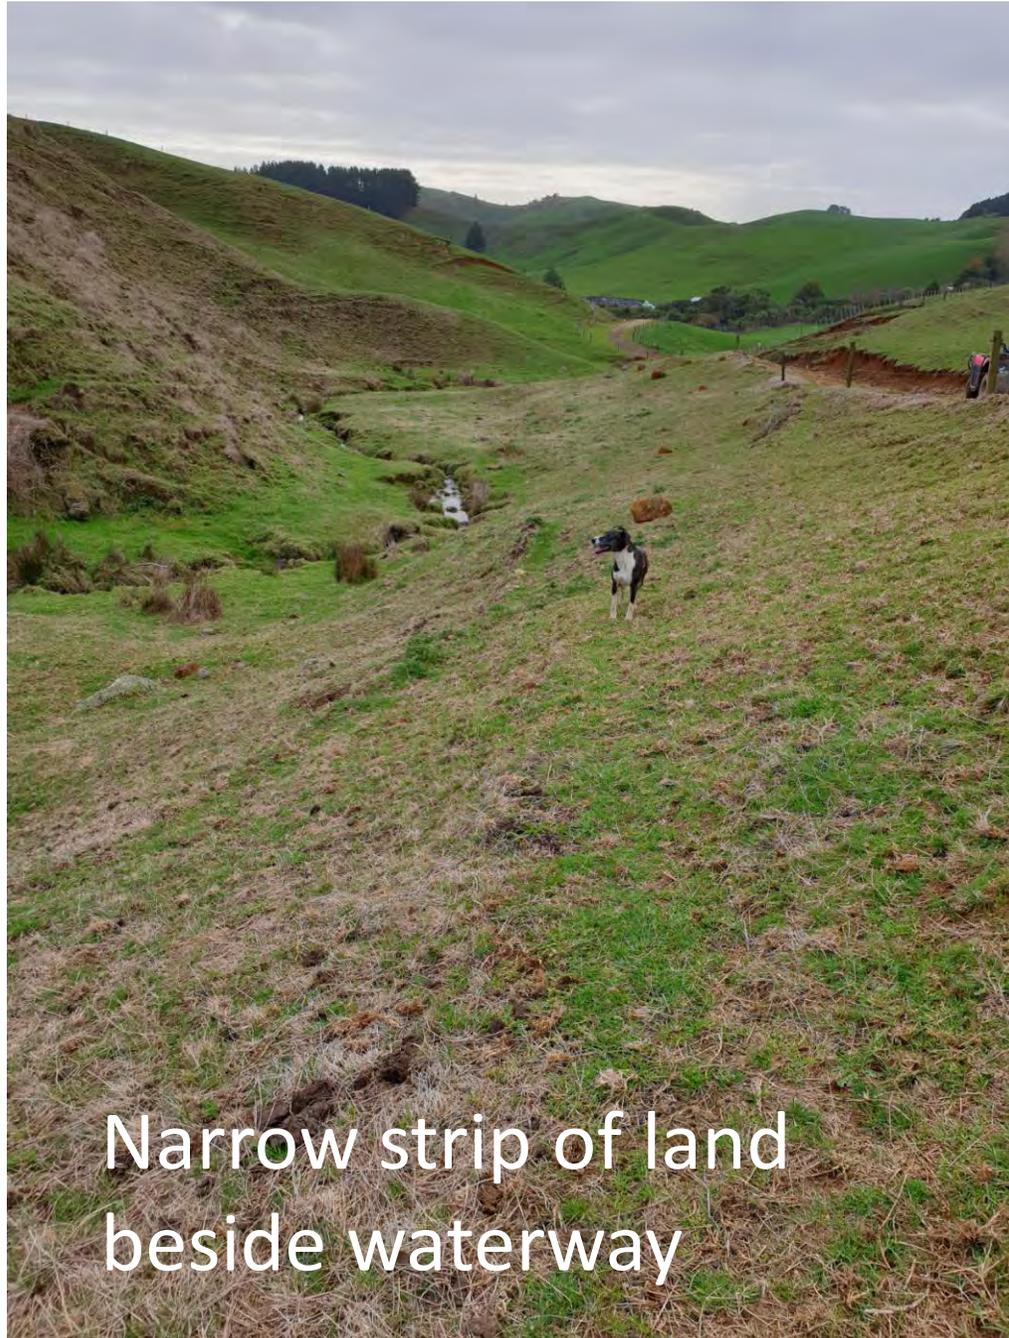

West highland terrier with aversion to listening

Small creek fenced off and planted

Damage from animal tracking

Narrow strip of land beside waterway

Drain temporarily fenced on one side

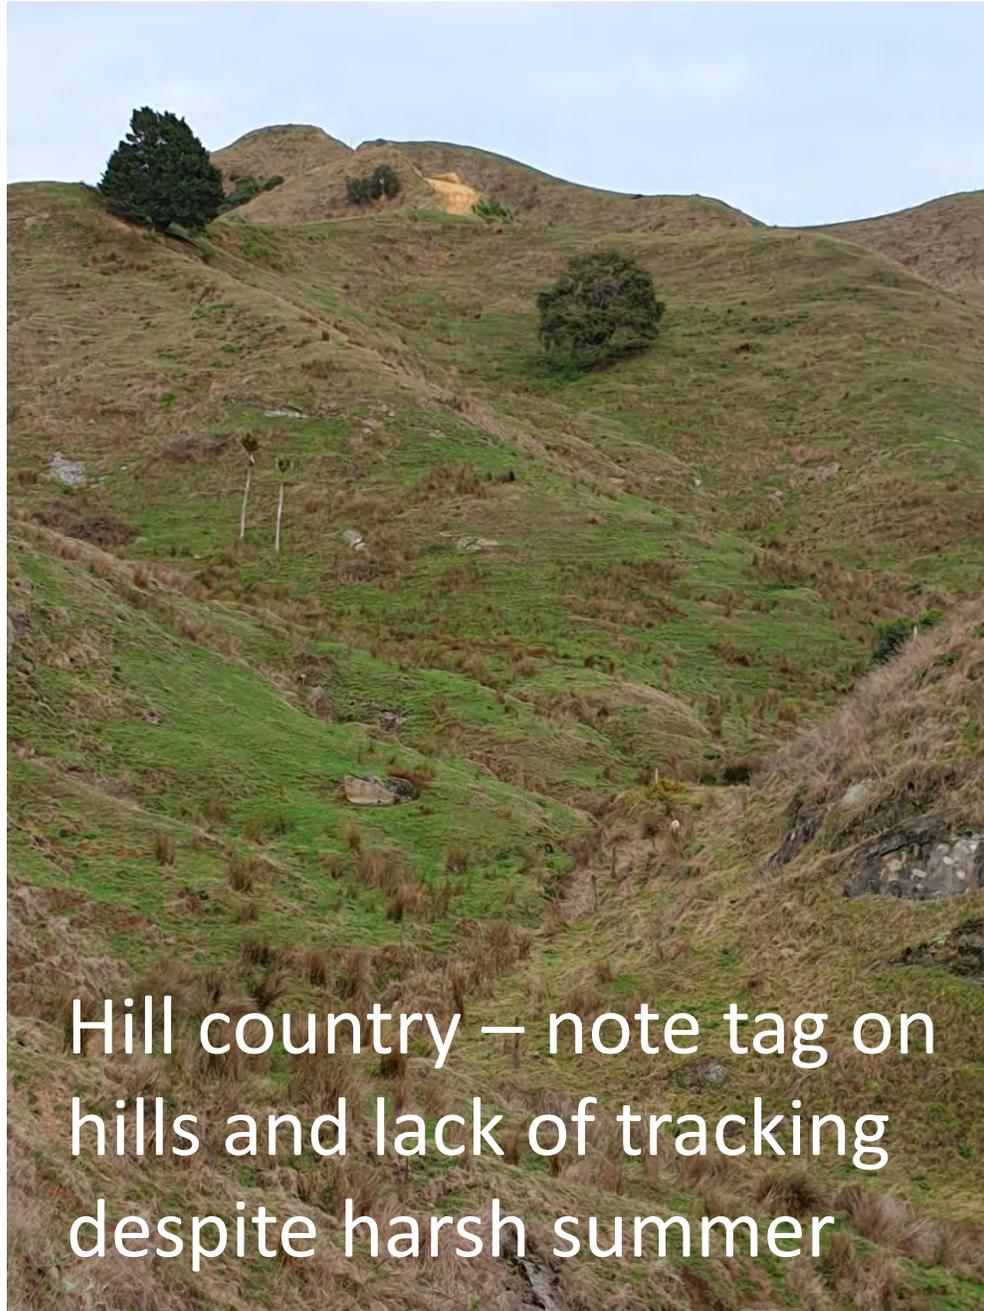

Te Miro – note many waterways

PC1 drain which is only 70 meters long

Sheep only paddock with historical poplar planting

Hill country – note tag on hills and lack of tracking despite harsh summer

PC1 classed waterway – note integrity of banks despite harsh summer

Drain fenced on one side

Drain fenced on one side with established plantings

Poplar plantings - 2017

Side of Lake Placid – fenced and planted 2016

Looking toward Kaniwhaniwha stream